Tender Details

The NSW Rural Fire Service ICT department is responsible for implementing and managing a large scope of IT infrastructure including Cloud services that must be highly available across geographical locations to support the applications and services that the NSW Rural Fire Service rely on. The NSW Rural Fire Service (RFS) has the legal requirement to issue warnings and public advice for bush fires and bush fire threats. The RFS uses many different methods and technologies to disseminate information to the general public such as the RFS public website (https://www.rfs.NSW.gov.au), MyFirePlan (https://www.myfireplan.com.au) and Project Firestorm (http://www.projectfirestorm.com). These websites form the subject of this RFQ.
