Overview

eCALD® Services is a division of the Institute for Innovation and Improvement, Waitemata District Health Board. We are seeking cross-cultural educators to provide virtual and face-to-face cultural competency training services to the primary, secondary, and non-governmental health workforce in New Zealand. The training programme aims to upskill the health workforce in working with culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) migrants and refugees from Asian and Middle Eastern, Latin American and African backgrounds.

Please refer to the attached RFQ document for further information and detailed requirements.

NOTE:

Proposals must be submitted through GETS. We will not be accepting faxed, posted or emailed submissions.
