Overview

This is the second of three related RFP's that REANNZ will issue during 2022.

REANNZ is undertaking a strategic review of its national network capability which will involve going to market several times in 2022 for

1. National Network Connectivity - [CLOSED]

Inter-regional point to point connectivity between established REANNZ points of presence and REANNZ hardware.

2. Core Network Packet Hardware - [THIS RFP]

Future hardware platform to replace current aging infrastructure.

3. Network Reach partner(s) - [FUTURE]

Network infrastructure partners to provide 1-10Gbps network services to emerging or smaller research sites that are not located within effective reach of REANNZ points of presence.
