

Nottingham City drug and alcohol strategic commissioning review

Buyer: Nottingham City Council

---

Description:

Nottingham City Public Health is redesigning and recommissioning some of the services within the wider drug and alcohol treatment system. This market engagement event will be an opportunity to share initial proposals and inform the recommissioning of services. The services that are within scope of the review are: • Adult drug and alcohol services in the community • Adult drug and alcohol services within the criminal justice system • Drug and alcohol services for young people • Family support • Needle exchange and harm reduction.
