The Parties shall seek to resolve any dispute amicably by mutual consultation and discussion at the appropriate level of Parties or through the committee constituted, representing members from both sides, whichever is suitable to reach the amicable solution of dispute.

27.2 If either Party objects to any action or inaction of the other Party, the objecting Party may file a written Notice of Dispute to the other Party providing in detail the basis of the dispute. The Party receiving the Notice of Dispute will consider it and respond in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt. If that Party fails to respond within thirty (30) days, or the dispute cannot be amicably settled within thirty (30) days following the response of that Party, disputes shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the following provisions:

27.3 Failing amicable settlement, the dispute, differences or claims, as the case may be, shall be finally settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1940 of Pakistan.

27.4 The arbitration shall be conducted at Islamabad, Pakistan before an arbitration panel comprising three (3) members, one to be nominated by each Party and the third nominated by the first two nominees (collectively, “arbitration panel”).

27.5 The fee/expenses of the arbitrators and all other expenses of the arbitration shall initially be borne and paid equally by both the Parties, subject to determination by the arbitration panel. The arbitration panel may provide in the arbitral award for the reimbursement to the prevailing party of its costs and expenses in bringing or defending the arbitration claim, including legal fees and expenses incurred by such Party.

27.6 Any decision or award resulting from the arbitration shall be final and binding upon the Parties. The Parties will agree that the arbitral award may be enforced against the Parties to the arbitration proceedings or their assets, wherever they may be found, and that a judgment upon the arbitral award may be entered in courts having jurisdiction at Islamabad only.

27.7 Pending the submission of and/or decision on a dispute, difference or claim or until the arbitral award is published the Parties shall continue to perform all of their obligations under the Contract.
