Title

Music Moves Europe – Strengthening the Dialogue on Music

Description

This open call for tenders aims at strengthening the dialogue with the music sector in Europe for the next years. The services to be provided will mainly consist of:• organising a series of Music Moves Europe dialogue meetings (max. three per year) at major music conferences in Europe, involving music professionals and focussing on topical themes for the sector that have relevance for EU and national policy making on music;• organising an EU level conference on music (at least every second year), involving the EU institutional level, MS' representatives and representative European music organisations/associations to take stock and discuss the way ahead.As a basis for the organisation of this dialogue, this call for tenders will also include a request for conceptual work to provide an updated definition on Europe's music ecosystem.This call will implement the new sectorial action on music, under the Annual Work Programme 2021 of Creative Europe.
