Title

Information and Communication Services of the 'Info-Point' for the Regional Representation of the European Commission in Wroclaw, Poland

Description

European Commission Regional Representation (ECRR) in Wroclaw is launching an open procedure for the provision of information and communication services of the 'Information Point (Info-Point)'. We are seeking a qualified service provider to carry out services such as running a walk-in center, answering citizens' inquiries, organising European lessons and webinars, assisting in the organisation of events and suggesting actions to promote services of the Info-Point in Wroc?aw. In addition to its existing mission of establishing direct contact with the general public and satisfying their information needs on the spot, the Info-Point will be assigned a more prominent role and wider responsibility in supporting the ECRR's efforts to communicate political priorities of the Commission and organising events for key national, regional and local interest groups and multipliers. The contractor will be obliged to distribute publications and information materials to citizens and institutions.
